Jillybean's Cupcakes & Ice Cream

Monday, November 28, 2011, a Ribbon Cutting for Jillybean's Cupcakes & Ice Cream was held on the Public Square in Jacksonville. With much experience and a noticeable love for baking for her husband and 5 boys, instead of returning to her job as a councilor, Jill Waters decided to bring something new to Jacksonville.

"I wanted to bring an inexpensive fun experience for families in the area. I'd made cupcakes for various events and been told they were awesome," says Jill.

Jillybean's will serve 13 flavors of cupcakes each day, 2 rotating feature flavors and 11 everyday menu flavors.

Jillybean's shows its JSU pride with the Cockey Cake, a red velvet cupcake with cream cheese filling, but also have delectable cupcakes with flavors like Wedding Cake, Dreamsicle, 2Dye4, Strawberry Lemonade, Lemon, Mocha Carmel Sea Salt, Chocolate Chocolate, Vanilla Bean, and Peanut Butter Cup. Jill mentioned that there would even be a Vegan and gluten free cupcake. For those, who dislike icing, Jill advertises "Naked" cupcakes without the iced topping.

Much time and energy were spent on restoring the building that dates back to 1868. Jill stated that they made a strong effort to buy made in the U.S. appliances, and "we will buy local food as much as possible," says Jill. "Real ingredients like real butter and not pasteurized ingredients because often cupcakes made with pasteurized ingredients taste flat."

In a few weeks, Jillybean's will begin serving ice cream alongside the cupcakes with flavors like Black Walnut, Butter Pecan, Cookies and Cream, Strawberry, Chocolate, Cookie Dough, and a sugar free ice cream. Jill hopes to eventually serve homemade ice cream alongside her cupcakes.

Jillybean's will also feature local artists within their shop, knitted items, paintings and more.

"I felt it was really important to be active in the community, and joining the Chamber of Commerce gives me that opportunity."

WELCOME JILLYBEAN'S!
