

VOLUNTEER SPOTLIGHT

Andrea Skinner

Andrea Skinner has called Calhoun County home for the past 29 years. She graduated from Jacksonville High School in 2000 and from Jacksonville State University in 2007 with a degree in Chemistry. Andrea is now the new Marketing/Community Relations Specialist for Autumn Cove Retirement Community on Greenbrier Dear Road in Anniston.

Autumn Cove is owned by a local veteran and has the capacity for 65 residents. They offer three levels of care: independent, assisted living, and specialty care.

In Andrea's short 3 months as a Chamber member, she has joined the Ambassador program and is a part of the Annual Meeting Planning Committee.

"Personally I have always wanted to be more involved with the community, but I did not have the right outlet to do so until I started working for Autumn Cove," said Andrea. "It is great to be working for an organization that has a strong belief in the Chamber and allows me to be involved."

She is also involved with Anniston Rotary and the Kiwanis Club. If she is not at work or volunteering, one can find Andrea running with her two dogs, a golden retriever and a pitbull. Thanks Andrea for all you do for the Chamber and our community!

Work Week...The Voice of Business

NEW MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Karen Gewalt LaFayette

Karen Gewalt LaFayette calls the city of Jacksonville, AL., home. She is this week's new member spotlight, but she is unlike any other previous candidate. Karen joined the Chamber of Commerce as an individual member because she wanted an avenue that would allow her access to network and be involved in the community.

"I am happy to be a new member of Calhoun County Chamber of Commerce. I joined the local chamber because I feel it's a great way for me to create a connection in our local community," said Karen. "I am re entering the work force, after an almost two decades of absence. The Chamber will offer me an opportunity to attend social and business events where I can socialize and develop relationships locally. My personal belief is that I am to serve the community, and what better way to network than to link up with a Chamber of Commerce. I am looking forward to the benefits of my new membership."

Welcome Karen!

These Chamber Members brought ornaments, which represent their businesses, to help us decorate the Chamber tree for the holidays. Help us choose who brought the most creative ornament by visiting our Facebook page and "liking" the picture of your favorite.
